A screenshot of the Google Earth desktop application. The window title is 'Google Earth'. The menu bar includes 'Arquivo', 'Editar', 'Visualizar', 'Ferramentas', 'Adicionar', and 'Ajuda'. The toolbar contains various icons for navigation and editing. On the left, the 'Pesquisar' (Search) panel is active, showing search options and a search box. Below it is the 'Lugares' (Places) panel with a list of folders: 'ex_par_01', 'ex_par_00', 'ex_par_03', 'ex_par_04', and 'Lugares temporários'. The 'Camadas' (Layers) panel is also visible, showing layers like 'Gallery', 'Ocean', 'Consciência Global: para visualizar;', 'Locais de interesse', 'Mais', and 'Terreno'. The main view is a 3D aerial view of a city with buildings and roads. At the bottom, a status bar displays coordinates and elevation: 'Data das imagens: 17/Dez/2005 23 K 679248.79 m E 7462144.64 m S elev 63 m Altitude do ponto de visão 237 m'. The 'Image © 2009 GeoEye' and '©2008 Google' watermarks are also present.
